

The Directors of Area 8 are excited to announce its 2nd annual Area 8 Basketball Referee Development Camp. The camp will be held at Metro State College. Dates for this year's camp will be May 28th, 29th and 30th.

This camp is designed and offered to all members of Colorado Board 4. The camp is structured for all attendees to receive proper training and education in a variety of officiating areas. Topics which will be covered and taught in the camp are high school mechanics, game management, communication skills, handling difficult situations and much more. There will be a heavy emphasis on teaching 3 person mechanics/rotations.

To assist in the teaching process, all games on center court will be videotaped and a detailed breakdown with your observer will take place following the game. A copy of the game will also be available.

“The camp is designed to offer something to every official regardless of your level of officiating experience”.

A camp social will be held following the last schedule game Friday evening. Place and time T.B.D.

The camp staff will consist of the following invited guest speakers and clinicians.

Invited Guest Speakers include:

Jimmy Casas- is currently a Division 1 official, working several conferences such as the Mountain West, Big Sky, and Missouri Valley. Jimmy conducts a referee symposium throughout the country on proper officiating and varies skills.
